THE TURBINA.

Board of Naval Engineers Experts Completed An Examination of It.

Washington, Aug. 27.-A board of naval engineering experts has just completed a thorough examination of the Turbina, one of the latest developments in the use of the steam turbine as applied to vessels. The results of the inspection will be made known in detail in a report on the whole subject of turbine power which the board will prepare, but meanwhile it may be stated that the performance of the turbine was regarded as highly satisfactory. There was a complete absence of vibration, a most important consideration in gun pointing and in the comfort of the crew. Furthermore, almost no repairs are necessary to the engines, there being no friction except in a few bearings. There is no pounding and thudding of engines, nothing but a soft rush of steam through the other valuable consideration in naval

Jack Munroe Went Down and Out Before Champion Jeffries.

The Fight Showed That the World Has Yet to Produce a Man Who Will Displace Jeffries as the Champion.

San Francisco, Aug. 27.-Like the veriest amateur in the prize ring, Jack Munroe, of Butte, Mont., went down and out before Champion James J. Jeffries Friday night in the second round. The man from the mining district made such an extremely sorry showing that the great throng in Mecharics Pavilion roundly hooted him as he protested to Referee Graney against the decision that had been given in favor of Jeffries.

The two giants had not been in the ring two minutes when it was foreseen that the aspirations of Munroe would be quickly disposed of. The miner was scared and awkward and Jeffries in the first round had him twice on the canvass taking the count.

Jeffries directed his bombardment against the stomach of his opponent and each shot was followed by a blow on the jaw that gent Munroe to his knees. Jeffries went back to his corner after the opening round with a sneer and a laugh on his swarthy face while Munroe's seconds busied themselves with smelling salts and restoratives. When the two came together for the second round the laugh on the champion's visage changed to a look of determination that boded ill to the Forty-five seconds after the gong sounded Munroe was lying on the floor, a bloody, bruised mass of humanity, with Jeffries standing over him, ready if necessary to put the quietus on the championship ambitions of his adversary. The miner was too dazed to rise to his feet and the time-keepers counted him out, but the husky man from Southern California did not understand that the victory was already his, nor did Munroe realize that his pugilistic star had so early set, and the two men, in a moment or two, facing one another and Jeffries landed a terrific blow on the jaw of his staggering opponent. It was this time that Graney came forward and ordered Jeffries away, telling him that the fight was ended in his favor.

Munroe tottered to his corner with blood streaming from his face and fell into his chair dazed and helpless. His seconds immediately began working on him to freshen him and when he came to a realization that the fight had gone against him he arose and, going over to Referee Graney, began to protest. The huge crowd understood that from his protesting gesticulations, etc., the purport of his talk to Graney, and a mighty volume of jeering and hissing evidenced the sentiment of the spectators, many of whom had placed money on the miner that he would stay at least double the number of rounds before the champion. From the time the bell rang for the commencement of the battle to the time that the count of ten had been uttered against Munroe, only four minutes and 45 seconds had elapsed. The fight demonstrated, if nothing else, that the world has yet to produce a pugilist who will displace James J. Jeffries as champion of the

A great throng witnessed the contest. Estimates of the number in attendance range from 7,000 to 8,000, and it is believed that the gate receipts will approximate $35,000.

The miner's showing was a disappointment to those who had the confidence that he would at least repeat in some degree his performance in Butte, when Jeffries failed to put him out in four rounds. In the first few moments of the opening round he made some show of aggressiveness, but that he was thoroughly scared was evident from the manner in which he broke ground and awkwardly endeavored to guard himself when Jeffries advanced toward him.

Jeffries did not extend himself at any time of the short contest, nor did he deliver a blow that required the full strength of his powerful arm. The shots that sent the miner down were of the short arm variety that found easy lodgment on the jaw of the man from Butte, but there must have been terrific impact behind them which was shown by the way the 200 pounds of flesh went down with a thud on the

THE BIBLE WAS MUCH USED There Was No Baby Chair in the House and It Served a Good Purpose.

A minister of one of the leading congregations of this city was recently making a call on one of the prominent members of his flock and was greeted at the door by the five-year-old daughter of the house, who was doing the henors as hostess in the absence of her mother, relates the Philadelphia Press. Spying a well-worn family Bible near at hand, the minister commented on the fact that there must be a good father in the house, which contained proof of having used the Bible to so great an extent.

"Oh, yes," said the child, "papa has us on the Bible three times a day."

"Indeed?" replied the parson. "How edifying. And, pray, what times does your tood father call upon this gaand volumne?"

"Always at meal times," answered the radiant daughter. "You know, we never had a baby chair in the house, so pa just sits the Bible on a dining-room chair and that makes it just high enough for us children My baby brother Jim sat on it this morning. We all had our turn at it."

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: —I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time.

"The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. Haves, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice-although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. Hayes, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt. Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness. Truly is it said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetuble Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.
